

Hi All,

I wanted to follow up with your interest in the Pilgrims of a Certain Age spiritual nosh and the book, "Seasons of Mystery." We already have a healthy group, with three more people who are not on email.

While at Christ Episcopal Church in Dover, I organized about 15 book studies. We were doing this one when COVID hit. Because the book is small but powerful, it lends itself to sharing and trying out these spiritual suggestions. I don't view it as a traditional "book study." I plan for there to be coffee and danish/donuts/bagels, or whatever we decide to nosh on (now taking suggestions while trying to keep it simple).

We start at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, January 9 (tentatively the Starnes Room) at the church and go for five weeks. If you decide you are not interested or can't make that date, please let me know

Also let me know if you received this, as I had fun transcribing some addresses.

Of course the book is available on Amazon, including on Kindle. But if you are not an Amazon fan or don't mind a used book you can also try Abe books:

<https://www.abebooks.com/servlet/BookDetailsPL?bi=31026396002>

Or Thrift books:

https://www.thriftbooks.com/w/a-season-of-mystery-10-spiritual-practices-for-embracing-a-happier-second-half-of-life\_paula-huston/2062397/#edition=6792640&idq=18493867

Here is the link to the page on Epworth's website, in case anyone you know might be interested.

<https://epworth.faith/a-season-of-mystery-2/>

But there is an optimal size for a group like this, so I am not too concerned about growing the group.

Peace to all,
Lee Ann