WHO WE ARE?

The Bryan Allen Stevenson School of Excellence (BASSE) is a free public charter school in Georgetown, DE. We will open with our inaugural 6th, 7th, and 8th grade classes in the 2024-2025 school year. At full enrollment, our school will serve grades 6 through 12.

WHAT WE DO?

We're committed to being one of the best charter schools in Delaware. BASSE offers a unique educational experience through a rigorous, interdisciplinary curriculum rooted in service-learning and personalized for each student.

PERSONALIZED LEARNING

We ensure each student's academic and social-emotional success with intentional support.

SERVICE LEARNING

We combine meaningful service to the community with curriculum-based learning

INQUIRY-BASED LEARNING

We prepare students for life after school by making connections to the world.
