Citizens across the political spectrum distrust our electoral system for vastly different reasons, from voter fraud and suppression to security and the peaceful transfer of power.

Braver Angels, the nation's largest volunteer-led movement to bridge the partisan divide, has worked to rebuild this trust by seeking solutions supported by citizens of all political persuasions. Republicans, Democrats, and Independents came together to find common ground with a shared belief in free and fair elections, the bedrock of our democracy.

Come learn about the Trustworthy Elections Initiative to see how we can work together to bridge the partisan divide that has polarized our nation.
